

Manitoba Rowing Association - Transgender Policy

MRA adopts as its baseline, the Transgender Policy approved by RCA on April 22, 2018.

The RCA text follows with MRA specifics added in BOLD

1. Purpose –MRA like RCA, believes that all individuals deserve respectful and inclusive environments for participation that value the individual's gender identity and gender expression. MRA and RCA wish to ensure that all participants have access to programming and facilities in which they feel comfortable and safe. MRA and RCA are committed to implementing this policy in a fair and equitable manner.

2. Definitions – The following terms have these meanings in this Policy:

a. RCA- Rowing Canada Aviron

and MRA – Manitoba Rowing Association

b. Bona fide – Acting in good faith, without deception or fraud.

c. Cisgender – People whose gender identity aligns with the sex they were assigned at birth

d. Gender – The socially constructed roles, behaviours, activities and attributes that a society assigns to masculinity or femininity

e. Gender Expression – The manner in which an individual represents or expresses gender to others – through behaviour, hairstyles, activities, voice, mannerisms, etc.

f. Gender Identity – An individual's deeply held sense or knowledge of their own gender

g. Gender reassignment – Medically-supervised program of treatment to transition a person's body to align with their gender identity through hormone therapy and/or surgery

k. Transgender Female – Someone who was assigned the male sex at birth, but whose gender identity is female

l. Transgender Male – Someone who was assigned female sex at birth, but whose gender identity is male

ACTIONS FOR INCLUSION

3. MRA along with RCA pledge to:

a. Provide this Policy to staff, Directors and coaches and offer additional inclusion education and training opportunities on its implementation;

b. Provide registration forms and other documents that allow: i. The individual to indicate their gender identity, rather than their sex or gender; and ii. The individual to abstain from indicating a gender identity with no consequence to the individual.

c. Maintain organizational documents and the MRA and RCA websites in a manner that promotes inclusive language and images;

d. Refer to individuals by their preferred name and pronoun;

e. Work with transgender athletes on the implementation and/or modification of this Policy;

f. When MRA and/or RCA has the authority to determine participants' use of washrooms, change rooms, and other facilities, MRA and/or RCA will permit individuals to use the facilities of their gender identity;

g. Ensure uniforms and dress codes that respect an individual's gender identity and gender expression; and

h. Determine Eligibility Guidelines for transgender participants (as described in this Policy).

ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES –

EXCEPTIONS

4. As applicable, the eligibility guidelines of t h e Fédération Internationale des Sociétés d’Aviron, and/or any major national or international Games Organization regarding transgender athlete participation will supersede the eligibility guidelines as outlined in this Policy.

ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

5. At both recreational and competitive levels, an individual shall participate in the gender category in which they identify.
6. Individuals are not required to disclose their transgender identity or history to MRA or RCA or any of MRA’s or RCA’s representatives (e.g., coaches, staff, Directors, umpires, officials, etc.).
7. All athletes must be aware that they may be subject to doping control testing pursuant to the Canadian Anti-Doping Program. The administration of hormones as a component of gender reassignment will, in most cases, contravene the World Anti Doping Code. Transgender athletes undergoing gender reassignment are encouraged to contact the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport to determine what procedures, if any, are required to obtain a Therapeutic Use Exemption.

CONFIDENTIALITY

8. Neither MRA or RCA will not disclose to outside parties any documentation or information about an individual’s gender identity.

ONGOING MONITORING

9. MRA and RCA commit to monitoring ongoing developments regarding national and international participation guidelines for transgender athletes and pledges to review and/or revise this Policy whenever new information becomes available.

APPEAL

10. Any decision rendered by RCA in accordance with this Policy may be appealed in accordance with RCA’s Appeal Policy. Any decision rendered by MRA in accordance with this policy may be appealed to RCA and in accordance with RCA’s Appeal Policy
